MRS. JOHN KING DIES SUDDENLY.

Mrs. John King, wife of a well-known Barton County farmer, died suddenly at her home three-fourths mile east of Boston some time early Tuesday morning. Some time during the night Mrs. King spoke to her husband about how hard the wind was blowing, and when Mr. King tried to awaken his wife about their usual rising time he found her dead. The condition of the body indicated that she had passed away about 5 o'clock. Mrs. King was the mother of several children, three of whom are married. Her maiden name was Hyder and she was born in Kansas. The family have been in this section many years. The funeral will be held at Boston Church this (Thursday) morning. Burial will be in Waters Cemetery.

BRETHREN CHURCH BUYS OLD PRESBYTERIAN PROPERTY.

Amos Harvey, Wm. Holdeman and Earl Harvey, as trustees for the Church of the Brethren, purchased the old Presbyterian Church property here last week from H. A. Vincent. The Brethren people have made some immediately necessary repairs to the church building and will begin holding services there at once. They will further improve the property later.

This purchase should result in much benefit to the Brethren congregation as it places the meeting house much nearer a larger part of their people, a good many being new residents of the town.

The church building on the base line will be left standing and used for funerals or any other purpose for which it may be available.

BANDITS MURDER CARTHAGE MAN.

George Babcock, old and respected citizen of Carthage, was shot and killed Saturday night in his grocery store by one of two negroes who attempted to rob him.

After asking for small purchases one of the negroes drew a revolver and ordered Fred Beard, who was in the store at the time, and Mr. Babcock to hold up their hands. The latter grappled with the negro nearest him and was shot in the throat and died in a few minutes.

The negroes escaped, but were caught in a negro boarding house in Joplin Sunday night. They confessed their guilt and proved to be ex-convicts, and both were wanted in Kansas City for robbery. They were bound over for the circuit court and on account of high feeling in Carthage they were taken to Miami, Okla., for safe-keeping.

What One Gallon of Devoe Lead and Zinc Paint Will Do . . .

True Paint Economy is determined by the area a gallon covers, and not by the price per gallon.

Gallon is a measure of quantity and not of service.

Get this thought thoroughly in deciding on DEVOE LEAD AND ZINC PAINT instead of ordinary paint.

A gallon of DEVOE covers from 50 to 100 square feet of surface more than just ordinary paint, and will last much longer, saving the cost of additional painting in both material and labor.
